Place(s) visited: Jorasanko Thakurbari (Kolkata)

Rabindranath Tagore's House, Museum, Rabindrabharati University 2nd
Campus

Title of the field work/project work: To study the thought and culture of Tagore family along with Rabindranath Tagore and its impact on our Nation.

Objectives: It is a different experience from classroom learning. In their curriculum of Undergraduate Programme, in core course CC13 and DSE4 named Contemporary Indian Philosophy and Sadhana, they are acquainted with Tagore's conception of 'The Nature of Man', 'Nature of Religion', 'Surplus in Man' which they learned theoretically. This sort of excursion is done so that students can look into a particular topic from all possible perspectives. It also enables them to learn everything. They got opportunity to learn practically beyond the ground of college premises. It has been arranged to give them deeper knowledge about their materials of study which will help them to go through this practical experience to higher studies.

Outcome: The students felt interested in such activities for their higher studies. They got lots of information from Tagore's collection and work.

Funding Agency: Bejoy Narayan Mahavidyalaya

Report

One day educational excursion was organized by the Department of Philosophy to Jorasanko Thakurbari, Kolkata. The students got the chance to see Rabindranath's residence in Kolkata. It was a great opportunity for them to see the renowned culture of Tagore family with the great collection and work of Rabindranath Tagore. We started our journey at 8am and reached at 10.15am at Howrah station by train. Dr. Sanchali Banerjee, one of our teachers meet with the group at Howrah station. After a refreshment, all students along with the faculty members were reached to the location by bus. We were five teachers and fifteen students. We visited all the rooms open for visitors to see the collection of Tagore's family, his thought, contribution and relation with other countries. We departed at 3pm from there to reach our home.
